G.	Two cases are put up. It will be seen that the question of rule of proportions will arise only when the man is entitled to pension or gratuity for the entire service. In this case, the service under the Durbar was inferior while that under Br. Service superior. Hence pension has been granted to his service under Br. Govt & the gratuity admissible to him for the mysore service may be sanctioned. The draft may be approved. SRJ 8-2 HC Srey 4

SIR,

With reference to your letter No.Fl.5207/S&A 166-20-2 dated 15th February 1921 stating that until the conditions on which the transfer of one Nagesa Rao to the Civil & Military Station Police was made are known, the question of any claim of the individual to gratuity for service in the State prior to his transfer cannot be considered, I have the honour to forward herewith for reference copy of letter No.ROC 8117 of 20 dated 6-10-21 from the District Superintendent of Police, Civil & Military Station, to the Inspector General of Police, in Mysore, wherein the conditions are stipulated.

As regards your observation about the discrepancy shown in para 4 of letter No.251 dated 12-1-20 from the District Superintendent of Police, Civil & Military Station, I may state that the applicant's service in the Civil & Military Station began in 1896 as his service there is stated to be 24 years and odd (Vide copy of letter No.2661 dated 27-4-20 from the Superintendent of Police, C & M Station, to the Inspector General.)

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

T. Satyaraj Chetty
Comptroller
